

Global Discipleship Certificate: Frequently Asked Questions

What is the schedule for this program?

September–mid-February – Study on-campus at Horizon

February 13–19 – Assignment Orientation

February 20 – Flight to Thailand*

February 21–March 21 – Ministry Assignment in Thailand*

March 22 – Flight back to Saskatoon

March 23–26 – Debrief in Saskatoon

March 29–April 9 – Finalize program requirements at Horizon

In addition to taking courses at Horizon, what will I experience during the ACTION part of the program?

Assignment Orientation is a week filled with spiritual formation, team building, and mission training. Your four-week international ministry assignment includes intercessory prayer, creative outreach, and compassion initiatives. Debrief allows you to rest, worship, and reflect on your experiences. This allows you to process your global mission experience as you prepare to reengage in mission back home.

Can I raise funds to support my discipleship experience?

Yes! Any student at Horizon can raise funds to reduce their program costs. Excluding parents, grandparents, or spouses, those who donate toward your account at Horizon will receive a tax receipt for their donation. Also, any Horizon students may choose to transfer their Tuition and Education (T2202A) tax credit to either a parent or grandparent or spouse who may then receive income tax credit for support they provide to a student.

How much does this program cost?

The total cost of the program will be $10,535 (this includes $6,575 for tuition and fees, plus $3960 for ACTION, the ministry assignment part of the program).

What does the program cost cover?

Your program costs (paid to Horizon) cover all courses on campus at Horizon, training and debrief for your international ministry assignment, as well as your international travel, lodging, food, and ministry activities while on assignment.

What is not included in the program cost?

Horizon's program costs do not cover accommodations while studying on campus in Saskatoon. In addition to your program costs, you will be responsible to cover the following expenses: Passport, Travel Visa (only if necessary*), Vaccinations, Travel Health Insurance, and Personal Expenses.

* A visa is not required for the ministry assignment in Thailand.

Can I continue to study at Horizon at the end of this program?

Yes! Students who complete the Global Discipleship Certificate can continue into any undergraduate program at Horizon. With the addition of only one course in Bible, you can use this program as the first full year of any undergraduate degree program at Horizon. You may complete the additional Bible course in the summer before your second year or at any point later in your program.

Who is Multiply?

Multiply was formerly known as MB Mission. Still based in the Mennonite Brethren family, Multiply is focused on making disciples, planting churches and growing partnerships. For more information see <https://multiply.net/about>.
