Course Description

This introductory course is designed to equip students to think theologically. Students will learn the sources and methods for doing theology within a broadly evangelical perspective (a 'generous orthodoxy') and then reflect on the major themes and concepts in Christian theology, including the doctrine of God and the Trinity, Christology, the Holy Spirit, creation and fall, salvation, the church, and the last things. Students will develop an ordered understanding of basic Christian doctrine and cultivate an appreciation for the ongoing significance of theological reflection for the health and impact of the church and for the Christian's life, ministry/vocation, and service in the world.

Course Goals

1. Begin to understand why and how theology is done.
2. Recognize and appreciate the doctrinal consensus of the Christian faith as well as the diversity found within it.
3. Appreciate the particularity of the evangelical theological tradition as well as your own denomination.
4. Become more aware of Christian theological traditions other than your own.
5. Identify personal theological presuppositions and beliefs.
6. Build a basic vocabulary of theological terms.
7. Develop skills of careful theological analysis and reflection.
8. Be equipped to minister with greater biblical and theological clarity.
9. Appreciate the value of systematic theology, including the implications it has for Christian living and the practice of ministry.

Course Assignments and Activities

Lecture Attendance and Interaction	n/a	3 pages	Feb 26
Approaches to Theology	20%	5 pages	Jan 29
The Doctrine of God	20%	5 pages	Feb 19
Topical Reading Responses	20%	6 pages	Mar 19
Research Paper	35%	10 pages	Apr 9
Final Reflections	5%	2 pages	Apr 16

The due dates for these assignments overlap. You will be completing assignments 2-3 while you are still working on assignment 1. The assignment descriptions below describe when to work on each assignment.

1. Lecture Attendance and Interaction (marked as complete/incomplete) *Complete by Feb 26

In order to pass this course, you are required to “attend” and engage with all of the lectures (via the videos, the Theology Reading Pack, handouts, notes, etc.). Your lecture interaction will take place in each of the “lesson” discussions on Populi (see here). To demonstrate your participation, plan to make one or more posts of about 100 words for every lesson. With your posts, I also encourage you to respond to other students in the course. Note that you are not required to answer all of the questions that I direct students to post on within the lecture videos. Also, you are not required to write out answers to the supplementary reading questions. Within the lessons, however, I will direct you to complete the readings from the Theology Reading Pack, to think about the answers to the questions, and to listen to our in-class discussion of those readings. This assignment will be marked as complete or incomplete. By the due date, you will submit a one-sentence statement to the professor indicating that you have “attended” all of the lectures online.

**NOTE: You will complete assignments 2-3 while also working on assignment 1.*

- Due date: February 26, 2021.

2. Approaches to Theology – 20%

After you have finished lessons 1-4 on Populi, you should complete this assignment. The purpose of this paper is to get you to think more deeply about how people (including you) do theology. For this assignment you will read (in this order):

- a) McGrath, chs. 5-8.
- b) Grenz, Introduction + ch. 14.
- c) Olson, Introduction, chs. 1-6 + Conclusion.

After completing the reading, write a 1600-1900 word evaluation (about 5 pages) of Olson’s proposal in Reformed and Always Reforming. This paper has three parts: (1) review the book by identifying Olson’s thesis and tracing his argument through the book (2 pages); (2) critique Olson’s book (about 2 pages) by noting its theological strengths and weaknesses (not how he presents the material)—you can draw on the other authors you read to assist you in your critique; and (3) note how the readings (not just Olson) have impacted your understanding of theology (about 1 page). Be sure to use (and cite) all of the required readings for this assignment, not just Olson.

- Assignment Length: 5 pages. Due date: January 29, 2021.

3. The Doctrine of God – 20%

As or after you have finished lessons 5-6 on Populi, you should complete this assignment. The primary purpose of this assignment is to build your knowledge of the doctrine of God which will serve as a foundation for the remainder of your theology. For this assignment you will read (in this order):

- a) McGrath, chs. 9 + 13.
- b) Olson, ch. 7.
- c) Gabriel.
- d) Grenz, chs. 1-3.

After completing the reading, write a 1500-1800 word evaluation (about 5 pages) of Grenz’s presentation of the doctrine of God in Theology for the Community of God. This paper has three parts: (1) review the book by identifying Grenz’s main arguments in each of the three chapters (about 2 pages); (2) critique Grenz by noting both strengths and weaknesses in his presentation (about 2 pages); and (3) note how the readings (not just Grenz) have impacted your own doctrine of God (about 1 page). Be sure to use (and cite) all of the required readings for this assignment (not just Grenz).

- Assignment Length: 5 pages. Due date: February 19, 2021.

4. Topical Reading Responses – 20%

After you have finished lessons 7-10 on Populi, you should complete this assignment. The primary purpose of this assignment is to further introduce you to key topics in theology. For this assignment you will read the following:

- 1) Christology = McGrath, ch. 10.
- 2) Pneumatology = Grenz, ch. 13.
- 3) Soteriology = McGrath, chs. 11 + 17.
- 4) Human Nature, Sin, and Grace = McGrath, ch. 14.
- 5) Church and the Sacraments = McGrath, chs. 15 + 16.
- 6) Last Things = McGrath, ch. 18.

After you complete each of the six readings, you will submit a 1-page response for each topic (for a total of 6 pages). For this assignment citing the page number in parentheses will be sufficient (you do not need to use full footnotes). Your responses should include the following aspects (please number each aspect for each reading you are responding to):<sup>1</sup>

- 1) Respond to/reflect on key issues that stood out to you in the reading. For example, you might note points that you disagreed with (and why!) or points that you found particularly helpful (and why!). Do not summarize what you have read. This should take up the majority of the page (2-3 paragraphs).
- 2) Thoughts on how this doctrine(s) or an aspect of the doctrine(s) might be applicable/practical (only 1-3 sentences). Ask yourself how this doctrine(s) might affect how you live?<sup>2</sup>
- 3) A brief personal belief statement on the topics you have read about (only 2-3 sentences). You do not have to state why nor support your statement.<sup>3</sup>
- 4) Two or three questions you have from the readings.<sup>4</sup> You do not need to explain your questions.

Submit your responses after you have completed all of the reading and responses.

- Assignment Length: 6 pages. Due date: March 19, 2021.

5. Research Paper – 35%

You may write either a theological heresy paper, an historical theology paper, a theological traditions paper, a general theological research paper, a theological response paper, or a contemporary/pastoral theological issues paper. You can find examples for each of these options

<sup>1</sup> That is, you should have numbers 1-4 on each of the six pages.

<sup>2</sup> For example, one aspect of the doctrine of creation is that creation is distinct from God. This implies that one should not worship anything created. (Please do not say that a doctrine is practical because you could teach the doctrine in church.)

<sup>3</sup> Please do not only state that you believe whatever the consensus of the Christian church is. Also attempt to decide what you believe regarding issues where church traditions disagree as well (even if you are not totally decided).

<sup>4</sup> These will likely not be answered; however, they are a means of evaluating how well you have thought about the issues. They will also alert you to possible areas you might consider in future research (e.g., your research paper!).

along with possible research topics in a file within the lesson called “Notes Regarding your Research Paper.” You are also free to choose your own topic. This assignment should be characterized by critical theological reflection and not just a matter of reporting what others have said. As you write your paper:

- Aim for 3000-3500 words (about 10 pages), not including your footnotes and bibliography (include both of these with your paper).
- Record the word count for your papers after your conclusion.
- Aim to use at least 12 scholarly<sup>5</sup> sources (dictionary definitions do not count as sources).
- Your sources should include at least two journal<sup>6</sup> articles and two books.
- Please note the document “Common Pitfalls When Writing a Research Paper” (see the lesson called “Notes Regarding your Research Paper”).
- Follow the general assignment guidelines on p. 2 of this syllabus.

Failure to follow these simple guidelines warrants a grade reduction.

Ministry Project (option in lieu of a research paper)

In lieu of a research paper, you may choose to do a ministry project. Please discuss your proposed topic with the professor to ensure that it meets the expectations for this assignment. Just like a research paper, a ministry project will require the above-stated research and you will need to follow the formatting guidelines above (unless otherwise arranged with the professor). Since the purpose of this project is different than a research paper, you do not need to have a thesis statement. However, your project should still follow a logical outline. Although you may propose an alternate idea to the professor, in general the project involves developing a church curriculum or sermon series on a theological topic. Remember: Although you will present your topic in a way appropriate to a church teaching context, you still need to base this material on careful theological reflection. That is, you need to use academic research sources and include adequate documentation/citations that indicates that you have adequately used these sources in your project.

- Assignment Length: 10 pages. Due date: April 9, 2021.

6. Final Reflections – 5%

This final assignment is based upon all of the material covered in class and the readings. In a maximum of 2 pages double-spaced (about 600-700 words), identify a number of ways and reasons that you have matured in your theology through this course. You may consider the nature of theology in general as well as a number of doctrines, but do not limit yourself to discussing only one or two doctrines. For example: you may never have thought seriously about God as Trinity. How has doing so enriched your understanding of who God is? Or perhaps certain portions of the course have been surprising, challenging, and/or encouraging. You might want to explore why this is the case. How have your views been challenged or strengthened? Note that

---

<sup>5</sup> “Scholarly” sources generally include articles published in academic journals and academic books (a book is often not ‘academic’ if it does not have footnotes or endnotes). You are welcome to use magazine articles and web pages, but these will often not count as scholarly sources.

<sup>6</sup> There are a number of excellent databases available for searching the contents of many journals at one time. If you request a password from the Horizon librarian, you can access many journals online through the electronic search databases once you login to the STU Library page (see this video). An internet search can help you as well (although this would not be as helpful).

sometimes even frustration and difficulty can be a great source of growth. Please provide specific examples not just general statements.

Formatting Papers

- Papers should be typed, double-spaced and follow the appropriate formatting guidelines (e.g. 1 inch margins).
- Follow the Horizon Format Guide consistently.

Failure to follow these guidelines warrants a grade reduction.

Submitting Your Assignments

Assignments should be submitted via Populi. The resource at this link

<https://support.populiweb.com/hc/en-us/articles/223792507-How-to-submit-work-for-assignments> explains how to submit assignments on Populi (the link to the video is also available on the info tab of the Populi course page).

Academic Honesty

Horizon uses the University of Saskatchewan definition of plagiarism described as “the presentation of the work or idea of another in such a way as to give others the impression that it is the work or idea of the presenter. Adequate attribution is required. What is essential is that another person have no doubt which words or research results are the student’s and which are drawn from other sources” (Office of the University Secretary, 2012). Students are expected to give due recognition to sources from which all substantial phrases, sentences or even ideas are drawn. Note also that you may not submit work done in one course to satisfy the requirements of another course (unless both instructors agree beforehand to accept such work). See here for examples of plagiarism and further guidelines in the College Student Handbook.

Disability Services Information

If you would benefit from learning accommodations due to pre-existing physical or mental health conditions or learning disabilities, contact the Academic or Student Life departments at the beginning of the course. Horizon will work to meet your learning and/or physical needs where possible. If any conditions arise during the course that you wish to disclose, please contact us as soon as possible. In all cases you will need to provide current documentation of the disability or condition you wish to disclose. Horizon takes appropriate care to ensure confidentiality about any such disclosures. For more information, contact Bob Williamson, Dean of Students, at bwilliamson@horizon.edu; Heather Wood, Associate Dean of Students, at hwood@horizon.edu; or Leanne Bellamy, Academic Coach, at lbellamy@horizon.edu.

Class Attendance

Students should attend all classes in order to optimize their learning experience. In the case of illness or other unforeseen circumstances, students may miss one day of a module course or three days of class in a term or semester course without academic penalty. A student must be present for the full duration of a class period in order to be registered as present for the class. Students who are absent for more than the number of classes stated above will automatically fail the course. Students wishing to be exempted from this policy due to extenuating circumstances may make an academic appeal, where they will need to document and verify those circumstances.

Campus Health Policy

While on campus, please maintain 2 metres of physical distance between yourself and others. Do not come on campus if you are experiencing symptoms (even if they are mild) of fever, cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, chills, runny nose, or a loss of your sense of taste or smell. If you have any of these symptoms, do not return to campus until advised by Public Health. You should self-isolate and contact HealthLine 811 for advice on whether you should be tested for COVID-19. This will help keep others safe and possibly spare them from self-isolation and testing. While you are in self-isolation, you may attend class online. The link to access your class is posted on the course page on Populi, under the Syllabus tab, under Links on the right side of the page.

Live-Streaming Etiquette

If attending class online via live-stream, keep your camera on and stay present and attentive throughout the class session. Access your class with a computer (preferably) or tablet, not a cell phone. Arrive to class on time, and dress as you would if you were attending class on campus. Join the class from a quiet space with minimal background noise, and mute your microphone until you wish to speak to the class.

Use of Technology

Horizon encourages the use of electronic devices in the classroom to enhance learning. Careful consideration must be given to privacy issues, copyrighted materials, and the general care and concern for others. Please respect the following classroom policies:

- Please use online access for course learning only. This is a matter of respect for the instructor's teaching, your own learning, and fellow students who may be distracted by other uses.
- Students should secure permission from the instructor to record any teaching material. This includes PowerPoint slides, white board illustrations, notes, and any form of audio or video.
- Student feedback is a valuable input for course improvements. Please resolve any classroom grievance about the instructor or course with the instructor personally, through the Horizon College and Seminary grievance procedures, or the Populi-based course evaluations. It is inappropriate to air classroom grievances on a social media platform.
- When instructors use recording mechanisms in the classroom, recorded materials will be used for the sole purpose of instruction and cannot be released to any social media outlet without the written consent of the students whose images have been recorded.
- In general, it is not acceptable to share photographs or videos of students in the classroom setting without permission from those whose images appear in such media.
