Course Goals

Course Description

Effective public speaking in any forum is a combination of art and science. The purpose of this course is to build foundational homiletical theory and practices into your life as a preacher and to integrate that awareness with a growing ability to process and deliver the Word of God to people. The course also has relevance for students who may not be preachers but will use public speaking skills regularly in their life and work.

Relationship to Horizon's Mission

The mission of Horizon College and Seminary is to Advance God's Kingdom by Preparing Competent Christian Leaders for Spirit-Empowered Life and Ministry. This course contributes to that mission by training preachers to prepare and present effective sermons based on the Word of God in the Bible.

Course Work

Required Readings

1. Anderson, Kenton. Choosing to Preach: A Comprehensive Introduction to Sermon Options and Structures. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2006. ISBN: 978-0310267508.
 - Pages 21-125 (100 pages).
 - Anderson is a concise and articulate student of homiletics. His book raises several basic questions about preaching then presents five different approaches to sermon theory and structure.
 - Note: If you want more of Anderson’s approach to diverse preaching modes, see his later book, Integrative Preaching: A Comprehensive Model for Transformational Proclamation (Baker, 2017). In this book Anderson expands the final chapter of Choosing to Preach into a full model. It is not as appealing to me as the basic model Anderson sets out in Choosing to Preach.
2. Dale Carnegie Training. Stand and Deliver: How to Become a Masterful Communicator and Public Speaker. New York: Simon and Schuster, 2011. ISBN: 978-1439188293. (230 pages).
 - This book expands the course’s field of reference beyond those students who will be ‘preaching for a living.’ In the fulfilment of your vocation, you may not be called upon to prepare and present sermons on a regular basis; however, you will certainly be called upon to speak in a variety of contexts during a lifetime of service. The Dale Carnegie organization has been equipping public speakers in all types of occupations for many years.
3. Stanley, Andy and Lane Jones. Communicating for a Change. Colorado Springs, CO: Multnomah, 2006. ISBN: 9781590525142.
 - Pages 10-190 (180 pages).

- Andy Stanley is a prominent mega-church pastor, prolific author and engaging conference speaker who has made a strong impact on the North American evangelical church scene. This book offers a good introduction to the essential elements of Stanley's approach to preaching.
4. The following blog entries (available on Populi):
- a) Mohler, Andrew. "Why Do We Preach: A Foundation for Christian Preaching – Parts One, Two, and Three." albertmohler.com. December 19, 2005. (6 pages)
 - b) Williams, Glyn. "The Biblical and Theological Basis for Expository Preaching." August 27, 2014. (8 pages)

While students have the benefit of accessing their textbooks online through the Digital Theological Library, they will not have access to the Digital Theological Library upon graduation. Therefore, we encourage students to purchase select textbooks to build their personal library. For your convenience, Horizon has partnered with Kennedy's Parable to provide textbooks.

- Using the guidelines provided in "What is a Critical Review and a Personal Reflection?" section below, write a Personal Reflection for each of the four readings: ½ to 1 page for each of the three parts of "Why Do We Preach;" and 1 to 2 pages for "The Biblical and Theological Basis for Expository Preaching."

During Module

2. Three Sermons

 - Length: 3 to 4 minutes.
 - S1 is a practice exercise to get comfortable with public speaking in class and will not receive a formal assessment.
 - b) Brief Parable Devotional (S2)
 - You are assigned a parable and have a day to prepare a brief thematic message from that parable.
 - Length: 7 to 8 minutes.

- Related learning outcome(s): #5.
 - Assignment length: see above.
 - Due date: Module Week.

Post-Module

3. Critical Review of Anderson Textbook

- Read pages 15-125 in the Anderson textbook.
- Anderson raises four 'options' for the preacher stated in the form of questions.
- The questions:
 1. Are you going to preach?
 2. Are you going to preach the Bible?
 3. How will you discern your message from the Bible?
 - a. Begin with the text: deductive study
 - b. Begin with the listener: inductive study
 4. How will you communicate the message?
 - a. Focus on the idea: cognitive style
 - b. Focus on the image: affective style

- Respond to each of the questions: a) To show your understanding of the issue(s) he is raising in that question, and b) To share your critical assessment of the potential answers he offers to each question.
- Write one page for each of questions 1 and 2. Write two pages for each of questions 3 and 4.

- Assignment length: 5 to 6 pages.
- Due date: May 26, 2023.

6. Video Critical Review of Dale Carnegie Textbook

- Read the textbook Stand and Deliver.
- Using the guidelines provided in “What is a Critical Review and a Personal Reflection?” section below, prepare a video Critical Review that includes about 1 minute of commentary (maximum of 1.5 minutes) for each of the 12 chapters in the book. Some chapters will inspire you more than others.
- Along with the elements of a Critical Review, be sure to include:
 - a) The highlight(s) of personal learning from each chapter
 - b) Some commentary on the relevance of the chapter’s material for the preacher
 - c) A statement at the end (2 minutes) that summarizes your overall personal value from the book
- Related learning outcome(s): #4.
- Assignment length: 10-12 minutes (estimate) plus a 2-minute summary statement.
- Due date: June 9, 2023.

What is a Critical Review and a Personal Reflection?

A critical review is a more objective response to a reading where you fulfil the following criteria:

- Demonstrate your understanding of the author's purpose for writing and show a clear grasp of the major segments of information and/or arguments used to support his/her views.
- Interact with the material in a manner that assesses:
 - the relevance and significance of the material, what audience(s) might benefit most from the material, and benefit in what ways.
 - any perceived strengths and/or weaknesses you see in the author's views or conclusions.
- Point out any highlight quotations from the content that really resonate with you and explain why. [But – do not quote extensively as I want to hear from YOU not just from the author.]
- Raise any observations, questions, concerns, or issues that are evident as you work through the material.
- Share any suggestions you might have to add to or take away from how the author approached the topic and presented his/her material.
- Include enough of the personal reflection elements to show how the material has affected you personally.

A personal reflection is a more subjective response to a reading where you share:

- practical implications and applications of the material for life, work, and ministry,
- how the material has impacted you personally, and
- 'what if' everyone took this material seriously; how might it 'change the world'.

Both the more objective critical review and more subjective personal reflection must include enough summary information to give evidence that you have read the material or viewed the presentation. It is essential that you use specific details to illustrate points that you make about the reading/event and cover the full range of the content's major arguments or emphases. BUT - your writing cannot be just a summary of the material! I have read the book (or can find it if needed) and don't need you to tell me the whole story over again. As stated earlier, my purpose is to find out what you have to say about the material.

Academic Policies

General Assignment Guidelines

Please see the Horizon Format Guide for assignment submission, grammar, and formatting guidelines.

Late Assignments and Extensions

Students are expected to submit work by the assigned due dates, as part of their development of the Leadership and Administration competency. To submit extension requests, students must submit the Assignment Extension Request Form online and before the due date. Professors may grant extensions in the case of extenuating circumstances, such as significant illness or a family emergency. Furthermore, no extensions will be granted beyond the final day of a term or semester.

Unexcused late submissions will be tracked across each student's program. If one assignment is submitted more than five days late or if a student incurs multiple instances of unexcused late submissions, it will result in academic discipline, such as required tutoring, academic probation, failure of the course, or failure to qualify for graduation. Similar to standard human resource employment practices, students will receive warnings and conditions with increasing severity of academic discipline.

Resubmission of Assignments

Students have until the last day of revision week to submit revisions. Students can generally submit up to two revisions for each assignment, although a professor may accept more revisions if the professor determines the student is addressing all of the professor's instructions and making significant progress toward achieving competency.

Horizon College Assessment of Student Work

The goal of courses is to help students develop the stated competencies, not earn letter grades. Assignments are the means by which instructors evaluate development of those competencies. Consequently, students do not earn overall "grades" on individual assignments. Instead, assessment focuses on measuring students' competency as outlined in the syllabus and assignment rubric. For purposes of transferability to other institutions, the final competency designations will be translated to a comparable letter grade on a traditional transcript. The tables below explain Horizon's approach:

Horizon CBE Scale		Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point	U of S Equivalency
E	Exceeding	Student exceeded competency requirements for more than 40% of the learning outcomes and met requirements for all remaining learning outcomes.	A+	4.0	90-100
			A	4.0	85-89
			A-	3.7	80-84

M	Meeting	Student met competency requirements for all learning outcomes and may have exceeded in 40% or less.	B+	3.3	77-79
			B	3.0	73-76
			B-	2.7	70-72

Students pass a course only after they have demonstrated that they have met or exceeded all competency requirements for a course. If the student chooses not to meet all course competency requirements, the course will not be sufficient to fulfill their program requirements at Horizon. Nevertheless, for transferability purposes, the student will receive a letter grade of C+ or below on a traditional transcript.

BTM	Beginning to meet	Student was beginning to meet competency requirements for any one or more learning outcomes, and met or exceeded competency requirements for all other outcomes.	C+	2.3	67-69
			C	2.0	63-66
			C-	1.7	60-62
NYM	Not yet meeting	Student was not yet meeting competency requirements for one or more learning outcomes.	D+	1.3	57-59
			D	1.0	53-56
			D-	0.7	50-52
			F	0.0	0-49

Academic Honesty

Horizon uses the University of Saskatchewan definition of plagiarism described as “the presentation of the work or idea of another in such a way as to give others the impression that it is the work or idea of the presenter. Adequate attribution is required. What is essential is that another person have no doubt which words or research results are the student’s and which are drawn from other sources” (Office of the University Secretary, 2012). Students are expected to give due recognition to sources from which all substantial phrases, sentences or even ideas are drawn. Note also that you may not submit work done in one course to satisfy the requirements of another course (unless both instructors agree beforehand to accept such work). See here for examples of plagiarism and further guidelines in the Student Handbook.

Disability Services Information

If you would benefit from learning accommodations due to pre-existing physical or mental health conditions or learning disabilities, contact the Academic or Student Life departments at the beginning of the course. Horizon will work to meet your learning and/or physical needs where possible. If any conditions arise during the course that you wish to disclose, please contact us as soon as possible. In all cases you will need to provide current documentation of the disability or condition you wish to disclose. Horizon takes appropriate care to ensure confidentiality about any such disclosures. For more information, contact Bob Williamson, Dean of Students, at bwilliamson@horizon.edu; Jessie Lysholm, Associate Dean of Students, at jlysholm@horizon.edu; or Leanne Bellamy, Academic Coach, at lbellamy@horizon.edu.

Class Attendance

Students should attend all classes in order to facilitate competency development. Students are expected to be present through the delivery method that they registered for, either on campus or through live-streaming with their camera on. A student must be present for the full duration of a class period in order to be registered as present for the class. In the case of illness or other unforeseen circumstances, students may miss one day of a module course or three days of class in a term or semester course without academic penalty. Students who are absent for more than the number of classes stated above will automatically fail the course. Students wishing to be exempted from this policy due to extenuating circumstances may make an academic appeal, where they will need to document and verify those circumstances. Students who miss a class are responsible to get missed notes or handouts from another student, rather than from the professor.

Live-Streaming Etiquette

Students taking the course through live-streaming are required to indicate this during their course registration. While live-streaming access is available for on-campus students who are unable to attend class due to illness, on-campus students are expected to attend class in person following the class attendance policy.

If attending class online via live-stream, in order to be marked present for class, you must keep your camera on and stay present and attentive throughout the class session, extending the gift of engagement. Access your class with a computer (preferably) or tablet, not a cell phone. Arrive to class on time, and dress as you would if you were attending class on campus. Join the class from a quiet space with minimal background noise, and mute your microphone until you wish to speak to the class.

Use of Technology

Horizon encourages the use of electronic devices in the classroom to enhance learning. Careful consideration must be given to privacy issues, copyrighted materials, and the general care and concern for others. Please respect the following classroom policies:

- Please use online access for course learning only. This is a matter of respect for the instructor's teaching, your own learning, and fellow students who may be distracted by other uses.
- Students should secure permission from the instructor to record any teaching material. This includes PowerPoint slides, white board illustrations, notes, and any form of audio or video.
- Student feedback is a valuable input for course improvements. Please resolve any classroom grievance about the instructor or course with the instructor personally, through the Horizon College and Seminary grievance procedures, or the Populi-based course evaluations. It is inappropriate to air classroom grievances on a social media platform.
- When instructors use recording mechanisms in the classroom, recorded materials will be used for the sole purpose of instruction and cannot be released to any social media outlet without the written consent of the students whose images have been recorded.
- In general, it is not acceptable to share photographs or videos of students in the classroom setting without permission from those whose images appear in such media.

A Bibliography is available on the Populi website for this course.
